Which has been used in Carson for twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who use it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman could be without a bottle. Benton's Liniment is for sale at all drug stores.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

(Skaggs) Senate Bill 75. Concerning commissioners. Ways & Means. (Comins) Senate Concurrent Resolution to the recent address of the Bimetallic League.

It read as follows: Senate Concurrent Resolution, relative to the recent address of the Bimetallic League.

Resolved by the Senate the Assembly concurring that we hail with satisfaction the action of the American Bimetallic League, in calling up the people of the United States to make all the questions in the campaign of 1896 subordinate to the paramount one of the restoration of Silver and the cause of monetary reform.

Resolved. That the people of Nevada fully approve and endorse the declaration of principles and addresses formulated by the Bimetallic League at its session at Washington on Tuesday March 5th, and will encourage and sustain the work of Nevada's friends by pledging the electoral vote of the State to Hon. Jas. C. Sibley for President of, or any true friend of the people in preference to the candidate of any party whose interests are irrespectively connected with the single standard.

Resolved. That the Governor be requested to forward a copy of these resolutions to Gen. A. J. Warner, Chairman of the Bimetallic League, Washington D. C.

Summerfield opposed the resolution and received a lively scoring from Comins, who said that the Washoe Senator staid by his party in opposing Bimetallism. Patchen made a rousing speech for the resolution, but said he wanted a Western man instead of a Pennsylvanian. He was loudly applauded, when the roll was called he asked to be excused from voting. Maute insisted on the rule and after Patchen voted Aye there was loud applause and Comins went over and shook hands with him.

The vote stood all for the resolution except Kaiser, Martin, Mills and Summerfield.
